

Recommendations from Women Lucy Has Counseled

"When I started seeing Lucy for counseling, I was desperate. I wasn't sure what was going on with me, but I knew I needed some help figuring it out.

I am so glad I made the call to Lucy. I never felt judged by her for the things I spoke about. Instead of religious platitudes, Lucy really LISTENED to me, prayed for me. Each and every time, she gently pointed me to the Shepherd.

I am so very grateful for Lucy Ann Moll and biblical counseling!" -- Lynn

"Lucy helped me gain a confidence in myself that I didn't have before I began biblical counseling. She also helped me begin to forgive those who have hurt me in the past, and there were many." ~ Katie

"When I contacted Lucy I was trying to deal with depression and anxiety. Using the Bible she was able to guide me into recognizing my worth to God. Thanks to her I am better able to cope by turning to God when I feel overwhelmed by life." ~ Tricia

"Many things hit me at once. I felt like I was drowning. Lucy helped me to manage some very heavy challenges so I could once again live in joy in spite of things that were out of my control." ~ Angela

Lucy Ann Moll offers counseling in person, over the phone and by webcam/Skype. She is a biblical counselor who trained at Western Seminary, Portland, Ore., and directs Real Hope Biblical Counseling Center in Sycamore, IL.
